

Rivers & Streams-CH 15

On notebook paper-complete the following using descriptive section headings.

1. Read the first paragraph on page 379. Summarize this paragraph using a horizontal Chain of Events diagram (see page 818).

Example: Precipitation exceeds evaporation → soil soaked with water →

2. Read Stream Load and list 3 important facts (be sure to write Stream Load as the heading).
3. Read Stream Discharge and list 3 important facts under heading.
4. Read Stream Gradient and list 3 important facts under heading.
5. Read Meandering Channel & list 3 important facts under heading.
6. Read Delta & Alluvial Fans & list 5 important facts under heading.
7. Define floodplain.
8. Read "The Dead Zone" and list 5 important facts under heading.
9. Read Human Impacts & list 3 important facts under heading
10. Read Flood Control & list 3 important facts under heading.
11. On page 389-complete #32-35.
12. Read "Three Gorge Dam" and list 5 important facts under heading.
13. Relate some of the above facts to the Everglades.
14. Page 410, complete #9-13, #15-18.
15. Study for CH 15/16 test tomorrow.

Rivers & Streams-CH 15

On notebook paper-complete the following using descriptive section headings.

1. Read the first paragraph on page 379. Summarize this paragraph using a horizontal Chain of Events diagram (see page 818).

Example: Precipitation exceeds evaporation → soil soaked with water →

2. Read Stream Load and list 3 important facts (be sure to write Stream Load as the heading).
3. Read Stream Discharge and list 3 important facts under heading.
4. Read Stream Gradient and list 3 important facts under heading.
5. Read Meandering Channel & list 3 important facts under heading.
6. Read Delta & Alluvial Fans & list 5 important facts under heading.
7. Define floodplain.
8. Read "The Dead Zone" and list 5 important facts under heading.
9. Read Human Impacts & list 3 important facts under heading
10. Read Flood Control & list 3 important facts under heading.
11. On page 389-complete #32-35.
12. Read "Three Gorge Dam" and list 5 important facts under heading.
13. Relate some of the above facts to the Everglades.
14. Page 410, complete #9-13, #15-18.
15. Study for CH 15/16 test tomorrow.